EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Every two years, the Canada Foundation for Innovation runs an Innovation Fund competition to fund the purchase of large-scale research infrastructure.

In the recent 2017 competition, UBC had the highest-success rate (44%) on a dollar basis, with over $52M of funding awarded.

This presentation will describe UBC's success and highlight an award winner, Dr. Martin Gleave, Director of the Vancouver Prostate Center. Dr. Gleave will provide an overview of the Prostate Center and describe the research to be conducted.
