

PURPOSE

Universities across Canada educate more than a million students each year and Indigenous students continue to be under-represented in higher education. In addition, Indigenous perspectives and world views are not adequately reflected in the curricula of most academic disciplines. UBC is working to correct these deficits, and since the establishment of the Aboriginal Strategic Plan in 2009, the University has worked to develop a more extensive and comprehensive approach. This approach will now be extended under the 2018 Indigenous Strategic Plan, which is a central part of Shaping UBC's Next Century, the encompassing UBC strategic plan.

The UBC Board of Governors has a crucial role in ensuring that the University pursues the goals set forward in the Indigenous Strategic Plan and in that adequate resources are directed towards its fulfilment.

Another aspect of the Board's role is overseeing the University's alignment with the Government of British Columbia's adoption and implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) and the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC).

The UBC Board of Governors established the Indigenous Engagement Committee with these purposes in mind.

The Committee's mandate is to monitor the progress of all initiatives identified in the Indigenous Strategic Plan, including but not restricted to those identified in Report of the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples, the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada.

OBJECTIVES

The Indigenous Engagement Committee has the primary responsibility of monitoring Indigenous strategies and initiatives at the University, to ensure that progress is being made, and to recommend any necessary direction of resources.

There will be four primary areas of focus:

1. Ensuring compliance with any statutory responsibilities while at the same time promoting greater awareness and recognition of Indigenous peoples within Canada, with the goal to develop more functional and productive relationships between Indigenous peoples and the broader community;

2. Identifying and securing funding to support Indigenous faculty, Indigenous learners and institutional initiatives, including support for curricular development, independent Indigenous-faculty-led research, collaborative research of value to Indigenous peoples and communities, and related projects that may lead to more functional and productive relationships;
3. Developing a more detailed understanding of Indigenous strategies developed at the University, the programs and initiatives that currently exist and are being established, and the unmet needs of Indigenous faculty, Indigenous students and Indigenous communities that the University might address; and,
4. Evaluating and providing annual progress reports on the Indigenous Strategic Plan and other indicators of University progress in its handling of Indigenous affairs, and holding the University and its administration accountable for progress made towards realizing its commitments in these areas.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The Indigenous Engagement Committee is created by and is responsible to the Board of Governors of The University of British Columbia.

A summary of Indigenous Engagement Committee discussions and deliberations will be circulated to the full Board of Governors.
