EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Board of Governors’ Naming Policy GA6 establishes policies and procedures for approving names for campus facilities. Naming of Class 1 facilities requires recommendation by the President to the Board of Governors for its approval. The Board of Governors has, in turn, delegated this authority to the People, Community & International Committee.

This report conveys the recommendation of the October 31, 2019 meeting of the Naming Committee for the naming of a Class 1 facility for approval by the People, Community & International Committee

DESCRIPTION & RATIONALE The Naming Committee may recommend that a facility be named to reflect its use, to honour someone associated with the University, or to recognize a donor.

On, October 31, 2019, the Naming Committee recommended approval of UBC – Teck Geological Field School as a Class 1 Facility name for the Geological Field School located at 38216 149th St (Fairview-White Lake Road) in Oliver, British Columbia (Township 54). The proposed name is in recognition of a significant donation from Teck Resources Ltd.

The Naming Committee considered the Class 1 naming request and recommended that the President refer the name to the Board of Governors for approval. The donor recognition naming is also subject to provincial review.
