2. The University Community on Campus: UBC's Housing Action Plan - 2019 Annual Report

UBC's Housing Action Plan (HAP) is a 30-year strategy that sets out the University's long-range strategic housing support ambitions to facilitate improved housing choice and affordability for faculty, staff, and students, for recruitment and retention purposes.

Achievement of HAP policies is a multi-year undertaking with delivery support required from multiple operational departments and UBC Properties Trust. Significant progress has been made since the approval of the HAP by the UBC Board in 2012, in progressively expanding inventory and rolling out new programs consistent with HAP policies. This information report summarizes 2019 implementation milestones.
